THE POLICE COURT.

Holds an Extended Session this Morning.

Judge Perry investigated the case of Makaanahao about the first thing he did this morning, and the result of the investigation showed that the defendant was guilty of the larceny of $10 from the Hawaiian Tramways Company. His Honor awarded him six months at hard labor, a fine of $5 and $1.50 costs.

Tom Sing and Wing Chow are two characters whom the police found in possession of pakapio tickets and they are now suffering under the effects of a $50 fine each in consequence.

W. Williams' case is causing Jimmy Thompson a whole lot of anxiety. He is accused of the larceny of $12.30, and the case was still on trial as the BULLETIN went to press. Unless it ended a few minutes afterwards, the popular clerk of the Police Court will not get out to the ball game as soon as he would like to.

"The Time."

Through an unavoidable circumstance The Time will be issued on Monday next instead of to-day. If it is interesting to the public to know what the cause of the delay is there no harm in saying that it was through the inability of the editor to secure proper illustrations for the first page! If in all Honolulu there are people who have good ideas of illustrating certain public happenings and who have the ability to put them on paper, the proprietor of The Time will be very willing to pay for them. The drawings may be in pencil or pen and ink, and particular attention should be paid to the likeness of the persons in the sketch. Drawings not used by the publication will be returned.

The French Consulate.

W. M. Giffard, Esq., is in charge of the late French Commissioner's affairs and has temporarily opened an office over Spreckels & Co.'s bank, where any business connected with the French Government can be transacted. The funeral services over the remains of Mons. Verleye will probably take place about the end of next week, but the exact date has not yet been decided on. The body of the deceased has been embalmed and will in all probability be sent to France.

Has His Eye Sight.

Carl Willing, who recently came near losing his eyesight by the premature explosion of a cartridge in the magazine of a rifle, was seen on the street to-day. While the doctors have been picking powder out of his face for two weeks there is plenty left, and Carl says he doesn't care if he is tattooed as long as he has preserved his eyesight. To do this necessitated two weeks confinement in a darkened room which the patient did not like.

On complaint of a man who was ejected from one of the trams coming in from Waikiki last night for refusal to pay his fare and general misbehavior, Henry Fern, driver of the car, was arrested at noon to-day at Nuuanu and King streets, and taken from the car he was driving to the station house, where he was afterward bailed out by Manager Paine.

A Novel Sight.

A BULLETIN reporter dropped in at Hopper's planing mill this morning and saw a councilman, a blacksmith and two or three others bossing Julius Asche while he was planing a few sticks of wood. Considering the sticks were 6x10 inches in thickness and 54 feet long, Mr. Asche and six laborers had their hands full. The sticks were of the best Oregon pine and are intended to serve as deck timbers for the steamer Kauai which is to be altered and refitted in the near future.
